STANTON REUNION

Family Gathering Held in South Clinton Baptist Church.

The second annual reunion of the Stanton family was held at the South Clinton Baptist church on Friday, Aug. 20, 1915, with one hundred and twenty-five present. At 12 o'clock a bountiful dinner was served, after which the meeting was called to order by the president, A. J. Wilcox, who made a few fitting remarks for the occasion. In his comparison of the hardships of the first settlers to ours, it included all of our modern inventions.

The following program was rendered: Singing, All Hail The Power of Jesus Name; prayer, Rev. Charles White; instrumental music by Roy and Rena Stanton; recitation, Grace Stanton; quartette by Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Winters and Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Winters.

Remarks on the history of the Stanton family by A. J. Wilcox, Irving Stanton, J. W. Stanton, E. D. Stanton and Miss Lydia Stanton, followed by instrumental music by Roy and Rena Stanton; recitation by Clistia Curtis; duet by Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Winters; G. N. Stanton then delivered an admirable address and recited an original poem which was much enjoyed by all present; solo by Rev. G. A. Stanton; reading of the minutes of last year.

The following officers were then re-elected: A. J. Wilcox, president; E. D. Stanton, vice president; G. A. Stanton, treasurer; G. N. Stanton, secretary. After singing "When The Roll is Called Up Yonder," the meeting adjourned to meet the third Friday in August, 1916.
